

Measured deployment component boundaries

Distinct measured components — no additive latency or synthesized pipeline throughput

Complete E2E remains closed because the required representation/extraction bridges are not jointly measured. Missing deployment cost is not imputed.